

Thank you to our 2017 Gimme Shelter judges, who offer their expertise pro-bono.
We appreciate your support!

Caroline Invicta Stevenson, owns and operates Invicta Farms in Santa Fe, NM. Invicta Farms is a full service Hunter Jumper training and show barn. Caroline designed and ran Las Campanas Equestrian Center from conception through 2009 and was a founding member of THS. She has a lifetime of experience working in the equestrian world as a rider, trainer, coach, judge, equestrian event planner, consultant and expert witness.

Lori Walton, judges horse shows as well as ranch versatility and is also an approved judge for the Pony of the Americas Club, American Stock Horse Association, Stock Horse of Texas, Western States Versatility Ranch Horse Association, National Reined Cow Horse Association, and is an AQHA Ranch Versatility Specialty judge. She has also judged Extreme Mustang Makeover. Lori has trained horses and people for a variety of disciplines, she has over 25 years of experience.

Victor Salazar, lifelong horseman and cattleman, currently manages the cattle operation for Nutritas Ranch in Tierra Amarilla, NM. Experienced in bringing the fundamentals of ranching and training ranch horses to versatility clinics and competitions, his knowledge has given him the ability to teach people of all ages and experience levels how to successfully compete in National and Western States Versatility Ranch Horse Association events. His main goal is to help people train their horses to be more responsive and willing partners.